@Everyword Recreated

Chose: Digital, Analogue

If Digital:

1. Create a twitter account, you can chose to play off of '@Everyword' if you would like.
2. Tweet, in order, every word from a dictionary of your choice.
3. Words starting with an accented letter are tweeted last.

If Analogue:

Choose: Twitter Temple or Simple

Twitter template

1. On a piece of paper draw a grid with cells of 1in in height and 5in in width.
2. Create a template of a tweet on trace:
 - 2a. Divide the cell into 8 columns (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8)
 - 2b. Divide the cell into 4 rows
B
D
 - 2c. Draw a circle within B1 and C1, having it almost touching the edges of B1 C1
 - 2d. Fill the circle with whatever picture you like
 - 2e. Draw a speech bubble in the left side of D2
 - 2f. Draw circle made of two arrows in the left side of D3
 - 2g. Draw heart in the left side D4
 - 2h. Draw a letter in the center of D5
 - 2i. Draw a down arrow in the right side of B8
 - 2j. Starting from the left side of B2 write: account name, account @, date.
3. Copy the contents of the template into a cell, write the first entry (from a dictionary of your choice) in C2.
4. Moving down through the columns repeat step 3 using the next dictionary entry for each cell until you run out of words or cells.
5. Cut out each column and tape them together to form one long list of 'tweets' or cut out each individual cell.

Simple

1. On a piece of paper, from top to bottom, write in order every word from a dictionary of your choice.
2. If multiple pieces are needed tape them together so the words from one column.
